

Jumbled Sentence (PQ for RS)

NDA/CDS/AFCAT

Day 11

Jai Hind

Each of the following items consists of a sentence-parts of which have been jumbled. These parts have been labelled as P-Q-R-and S. Given below are four sequences: (a)-(b)-(c)-and (d). Re-arrange the jumbled parts of the sentence and mark your response accordingly.

Questions 1.

P: and also the overturning of societal perceptions

Q: People all across France, and the world, have followed the over three-month trial

R: marched on the streets and held demonstrations to seek changes in law for sexual crimes against women

S: and toxic patriarchal behaviour.

(a) QRPS

(b) QPSR

(c) RPSQ

(d) SPRQ

Questions 2.

P: and despite her ordeal, “society could take hold of the debates that took place there”.

Q: She hoped that by opening the doors of the trial,

R: She said she had led the fight for her daughters and grandchildren and also “unrecognised victims whose stories often remain in the shadows”.

S: Her case has sparked fierce debates on abuse and the aftermath.

(a) RQPS

(b) RSQP

(c) SPRQ

(d) QRPS

Question 3.

P: and that globally, an estimated 736 million women have experienced physical and/or sexual violence.

Q: The United Nations says violence against women remains one of the most prevalent human rights violations,

R: In a majority of cases, complaints of sexual abuse and rapes are not reported and prosecuted.

S: France is not the only violator.

(a) QRSP

(b) QSPR

(c) SRQP

(d) RPSQ

Question 4.

P: and rape charges must never be trivialised.

Q: But first, her words should be heeded,

R: She has helped break the silence and the shame around rape;

S: the onus is on society and law-makers to shatter the stigma and impunity attached to sexual abuse.

(a) QRSP

(b) QPSR

(c) RSQP

(d) SRQP

Question 5.

P: and recruiting strangers online to violate her as she was deeply asleep.

Q: The 72-year-old man admitted in court that he had drugged the survivor, 72, for years, before raping her,

R: In all, 51 people, aged between the late 20s and 70s, assaulted her as she lay in a drug-induced stupor,

S: and have got away with punishment ranging from three to 15 years, less than the terms sought by prosecutors.

(a) QPRS

(b) QRPS

(c) PRSQ

(d) RQPS

Question 6.

P: which was rejected by the Deputy Chairman.

Q: The Opposition sent a notice for a motion of no confidence in Rajya Sabha Chairman and Vice-President of India Jagdeep Dhankhar,

R: The conflict between the government and the Opposition degenerated into a scuffle on the penultimate day, followed by absurd allegations and police reports.

S: The first winter session of 18th Lok Sabha ended on December 20 as one of the least productive and most acrimonious in history.

(a) SQRP

(b) SRQP

(c) RSQP

(d) RQSP

Question 7.

P: and the U.S. government's actions against the Adani Group.

Q: Both the Houses witnessed protests from the treasury and Opposition sides over issues such as the alleged interference of U.S. billionaire George Soros in Indian politics,

R: Productivity in the Rajya Sabha was 40%, as it met for 43 hours and 27 minutes of the schedule.

S: The Lok Sabha functioned for 54.5% of its scheduled time.

(a) QRPS

(b) QSRP

(c) RPSQ

(d) SQRP

Question 8.

P: Other than the Appropriation Bills as part of the supplementary demands for grants,

Q: the Lok Sabha discussed and passed the Banking Laws (Amendment) Bill, the Railways (Amendment) Bill and the Disaster Management (Amendment) Bill.

R: The session was scheduled to take up 16 Bills in the legislative business and the first batch of supplementary grants under the financial business.

S: Of the 16 Bills, only one Bill, the Bharatiya Vayuyan Vidheyak, 2024, significant for the civil aviation sector, was passed in both Houses.

(a) RQSP

(b) RSPQ

(c) SRQP

(d) PRSQ

Question 9.

- P: External Affairs Minister S. Jaishankar made statements in both Houses on India-China relations.
- Q: The Constitution (One Hundred and Twenty-Ninth Amendment) Bill and the Union Territories Laws (Amendment) Bill, that aim to achieve simultaneous elections in the country, were introduced and referred to a Joint Committee of Parliament.
- R: The debates saw Opposition members asking the government to protect the public sector banking system, ensure the safety of rail passengers and employees and bring in transparency in the allocation of funds to States hit by natural calamities.
- S: The Rajya Sabha passed the Boilers Bill and the Oilfields (Regulation and Development) Amendment Bill, bringing major changes in the industrial laws governing large furnaces and boilers and the petroleum sector.
- (a) SRQP                      (b) SQRP                      (c) RSPQ                      (d) QRSP

Question 10.

P: The winter session demonstrated the need for an urgent restoration of parliamentary norms and basic decency in exchanges between political opponents.

Q: The acrimony peaked with the Opposition turning a reference by Home Minister Amit Shah to Dr. B.R. Ambedkar into a stick to beat the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) with.

R: Mr. Shah's misspoken remarks were taken out of context by the Opposition which feels that it is par for the course.

S: After all, the BJP had made ridiculous allegations about the Congress party's supposed link with anti-India forces abroad to stall Parliament proceedings for several days earlier.

(a) QSRP

(b) QRPS

(c) RSPQ

(d) SQRP

Question 11.

P: although the meeting of SRs is a stand-alone process,

Q: The 23rd meeting of the “Special Representatives” (SRs) of India and China — National Security Adviser Ajit Doval and Chinese Foreign Affairs Minister and Senior Politburo member Wang Yi — was a milestone in the restoration of ties since October this year.

R: meant to look at the broader boundary dispute and resolve differences over the 3,500 kilometre-long Line of Actual Control (LAC),

S: it had been paused since the military standoff in 2020.

(a) QPSR

(b) QRPS

(c) PRSQ

(d) SQRP

Question 12.

P: Other suspended ties, including direct flights, business and student visa liberalisation, and journalist exchanges, are also understood to be under discussion.

Q: The two sides have agreed to restart the Kailash-Mansarovar Yatra from India, border trade in Sikkim, and data sharing for trans-boundary rivers.

R: This indicates that the decision to hold the SR talks is a signal that with only LAC disengagement completed, New Delhi is willing to move ahead on other mechanisms for talks with Beijing, without waiting for the next processes of de-escalation and de-induction.

S: There were a few firsts too: the two men meeting in their capacities as SRs since 2019, although they have held talks in the interim; such a high-level visit to China and also Mr. Doval travelling to Beijing since 2020.

(a) SQRP

(b) RSQP

(c) QRPS

(d) RSPQ

Question 13.

P: and the Ministry of External Affairs referred to as “positive directions” in its release.

Q: On the boundary question, the Doval-Wang talks yielded what the Chinese Ministry of Foreign Affairs termed as “six consensuses”,

R: These involve continuing to implement the LAC de-escalation process; revert to the SR process on resolving the boundary issue according to the Eleven-articles set out in a 2005 agreement;

S: strengthen Confidence Building Measures at the border and cross-border exchanges; enhance coordination of the SR process, and the Working Mechanism for Consultation and Coordination on India-China Border Affairs to follow up agreements and to hold the next Doval-Wang talks in 2025 in India.

(a) QPRS

(b) QRPS

(c) PRSQ

(d) SPQR

Question 14.

P: the dismantling of buffer zones, restoration of status quo ante to 2020, and mechanisms for future deterrence against aggression at the India-China boundary.

Q: The optics and the messaging of the SR meeting indicate a certain momentum in re-engagement after four years of serious military tensions, and the suspension of regular contact,

R: although bilateral trade continued to thrive.

S: The government must also ensure more transparency in its conversations with Beijing over the future steps in normalising ties,

(a) QSRP

(b) QRPS

(c) RSQP

(d) SQRP

Question 15.

P: While restoring the links is important,

Q: and a likely visit to China by Mr. Modi as it hosts the next SCO summit.

R: the meeting comes just ahead of 2025, that marks 75 years of diplomatic relations,

S: it is necessary to strike a note of caution so that the situation caused by the amassing of troops and LAC transgressions by the PLA in 2020 is not repeated.

(a) PRSQ

(b) RPSQ

(c) QRPS

(d) SQRP

Question 16.

P: a launching pad for tourist boat rides — are all located in the same area.

Q: A busy port, a naval dockyard, the Mazagon dockyard, fishing boats, and a popular tourist destination — the Gateway of India,

R: Merchant ships and naval vessels jostle for space with tourist and fishing boats,

S: creating a congested and potentially hazardous environment.

(a) QRSP

(b) QPSR

(c) RPSQ

(d) SQRP

Question 17.

P: However, the naval speed boat that collided with Neelkamal is typically housed inside a naval ship and launched only for operations.

Q: Typically, sea trials for merchant ships are conducted in open waters.

R: Sea trials of a new craft involve testing it under the most stringent operating conditions to determine whether machinery and hull are safe and seaworthy.

S: This means it must be tested for maximum speed and manoeuvrability in shallow waters, possibly ruling out open-sea testing.

(a) RQPS

(b) RSPQ

(c) QSRP

(d) SQRP

Question 18.

P: When the accident occurred, pilot boats from the port rescued around 100 passengers,

Q: Neelkamal is an old-fashioned V-shaped wooden boat prone to capsizing if it takes on water, though it will not sink.

R: Unfortunately, those who could not hold on to the capsized boat or were not wearing life jackets did not survive.

S: most of whom were wearing life jackets, which are a proven defence against drowning.

(a) QPSR

(b) QRPS

(c) PSQR

(d) SQRP

Question 19.

P: It is necessary to establish guidelines for life jackets that can be donned quickly and easily, even by panic-stricken individuals, without being prohibitively expensive.

Q: An inquiry will determine whether the boat was carrying more passengers than its capacity and if there were enough readily accessible life jackets.

R: Tragedies such as the 2009 Thekkady boat disaster have raised significant awareness in Kerala about the importance of life jackets.

S: However, this incident serves as a broader reminder that sea or water transport is fundamentally different from road and rail travel.

(a) QPRS

(b) QRPS

(c) RSQP

(d) SQRP

Question 20.

P: It may be time for India to incorporate survival-at-sea training into schools and workplaces, alongside first aid and other life-saving measures, to foster greater awareness and preparedness.

Q: The sea — and even deep freshwater bodies — remains an inhospitable domain for humans.

R: Without assistance, drowning or hypothermia is likely.

S: In Scandinavian countries, where the sea is an integral part of daily life, survival skills for the water are taught to everyone.

(a) QRSP

(b) QPSR

(c) RSQP

(d) SQRP

ANSWERS

- |              |              |
|--------------|--------------|
| 1. (b) QPSR  | 11. (a) QPSR |
| 2. (a) RQPS  | 12. (c) QRPS |
| 3. (b) QSPR  | 13. (a) QPRS |
| 4. (a) QRSP  | 14. (a) QSRP |
| 5. (b) QRPS  | 15. (b) RPSQ |
| 6. (a) SQRP  | 16. (a) QRSP |
| 7. (a) QRPS  | 17. (a) RQPS |
| 8. (a) RQSP  | 18. (a) QPSR |
| 9. (b) SQRP  | 19. (a) QPRS |
| 10. (a) QSRP | 20. (a) QRSP |