

Synonyms & Antonyms

01/01/2025

Here Are 10 Notable Words From Today's The Hindu And Indian Express Editorials, Along With Their Synonyms & Antonyms

THE TUTORS ACADEMY

Frivolousness (noun)

Meaning: Lack of seriousness; lightheartedness.

Synonyms: Triviality, silliness, flippancy.

Antonyms: Seriousness, gravity, solemnity.

Example:

The court dismissed the lawsuit due to its frivolousness, deeming it unworthy of serious consideration.

Quotidian (adjective)

Meaning: Of or occurring every day; daily.

Synonyms: Daily, everyday, routine.

Antonyms: Unusual, rare, exceptional.

Example:

Despite the excitement of his job, he enjoyed the quotidian pleasures of a morning coffee and reading the newspaper.

Motley (adjective)

Meaning: Incongruously varied in appearance or character; disparate.

Synonyms: Diverse, assorted, heterogeneous.

Antonyms: Homogeneous, uniform, identical.

Example:

The festival was attended by a motley crowd of artists, musicians, and enthusiasts from all walks of life.

Stance (noun)

Meaning: The attitude of a person or organization toward something; a standpoint.

Synonyms: Position, viewpoint, perspective.

Antonyms: Indifference, neutrality, impartiality.

Example:

The government's stance on environmental issues has been criticized for lacking commitment.

Rationale (noun)

Meaning: A set of reasons or a logical basis for a course of action or belief.

Synonyms: Reasoning, justification, explanation.

Antonyms: Irrationality, senselessness, illogicality.

Example:

The committee provided a clear rationale for the proposed policy changes.

Tumultuous (adjective)

Meaning: Making a loud, confused noise; uproarious.

Synonyms: Noisy, chaotic, turbulent.

Antonyms: Calm, peaceful, orderly.

Example:

The tumultuous applause from the audience showed their appreciation for the performance.

Plausible (adjective)

Meaning: Seeming reasonable or probable.

Synonyms: Believable, credible, likely.

Antonyms: Unlikely, implausible, doubtful.

Example:

The detective found a plausible explanation for the mysterious disappearance.

Disruption (noun)

Meaning: Disturbance or problems interrupting an event, activity, or process.

Synonyms: Interruption, disturbance, upheaval.

Antonyms: Continuity, stability, order.

Example:

The sudden power outage caused a major disruption in the city's daily activities.

Emerging (adjective)

Meaning: Becoming apparent or prominent.

Synonyms: Developing, rising, budding.

Antonyms: Declining, diminishing, fading.

Example:

The emerging markets offer new opportunities for investors.

Spectacular (adjective)

Meaning: Beautiful in a dramatic and eye-catching way.

Synonyms: Stunning, impressive, breathtaking.

Antonyms: Unimpressive, ordinary, dull.

Example:

The fireworks display on New Year's Eve was truly spectacular.